GERMAN SUBMARINE ARRIVES.

One of the most remarkable feats since the beginning of the great war in Europe was the crossing of the Atlantic and arrival at Baltimore Sunday of the German merchant submarine, the Deutschland. This underwater craft ran the British blockade, came 4,000 miles, the longest trip ever made by a submarine, in 16 days, and then eluded the vigilance of English and French warships off our coast, which had been looking for her. The German boat carried a cargo of 1,000 tons of valuable dye stuffs valued at over $5,000 a ton, and mail, and is said to be the first of a number of underwater merchantmen which are being prepared to open up commerce between Germany and the outside world, which has practically been at a standstill ever since the war began and England swept the seven seas of German commerce. The Deutschland is a great tribute to German inventive skill and genius.

JUMBO

The picnic on the Fourth of July was a success in every way. Eight old soldiers were on hand and marched at two o'clock. They had a fine dinner at the home of Mr. John Lay. The old boys looked rather feeble but were in fine spirits and expressed a desire to go to Mexico in defense of Old Glory which they all fought for before. There was lots of good things to eat and speaking was in order. The older ones had an enjoyable time also.

People here are all glad to see the good rain. Gardens are fine. Mrs. Sarah Hastly, of Hanging Fork, has been visiting her father, John Lay here.

Miss Mary Terry has returned to her home from Cincinnati.

Messrs. Claud, Mike and James Lay were in Jumbo Sunday.

Mrs. Minnie Lay visited her granddaughter, Mrs. Mary Hastly.

School begins at Jumbo the second Monday in July.

DAVIS' STORE.

Our local stock buyers, G. D. Boone, Wm. Anderson and L. M. Johnson are buying so heavy, that we can't keep tab on their sales. But from the number of head of stock that pass our place, they must be doing a "land-office" business.

J. W. Coleman, who has been quite sick, is greatly improved at this writing.

The picnic given by the Pine Grove Sunday school was a grand success in every way. The large crowd was entertained by a number of songs and speeches by the children. Also some good talks were given by the older speakers in regard to Sunday School Training for the children. All went away, feeling that they had spent a day profitable in a noble cause.

Mrs. Nancy J. McKinney and Miss Mittie McKinney of Garrard, are visiting relatives and friends in this section.

EIGHTH DISTRICT POLITICS

To the Editor Interior Journal:—

Under the head of "Eighth District Politics," in your issue of Friday, July 7, there appears an attack upon my record, which, according to the writer purports to have been taken from the Congressional Record. By the correct Record, I am perfectly willing to stand or fall, but not by the perversions and misrepresentations of that record as attempted in the article referred to.

I am charged with "deserting the Administration" by alleged failure to vote in three instances, and for voting against it in one instance.

The first of these charges is that I "deserted" by failing to support the "Great Banking and Currency Act." On September 16, 1913, I delivered a speech on the floor of the House advocating this measure and urging its passage, stating among other things that it was "an insurance against panics." That speech was printed in the Congressional Record of that date, pages 5003-4, was printed in pamphlet form at my expense, and twenty thousand copies were sent to the Eighth district voters, including those who are now attempting to deceive the people by misrepresentation of my record, in my absence.

In the second place, by charging me with failure to vote for the Burnett Immigration Bill, it is sought to lead the reader to believe that the President favored that bill, when as a matter of fact, the President vetoed the Burnett Bill—an effort which exposes and emphasizes the ignorance of the writer as to what the President's real position and attitude was as to this bill.

The third charge is that I "deserted" and did not vote on the final passage of the Anti-Trust Bills. I was present in the House on May 19, 1914, and voted for the rule which made these bills party measures, and thereby insured their final passage. I was sent by Congress as one of the committee that accompanied the remains of Senator Bradley to Frankfort for burial, and my return was unavoidably delayed so that I was not present at the final passage of the bills, the result of the vote on which was known in advance, by reason of the adoption of the rule referred to, and which is further evidenced by the overwhelming vote cast in favor of those bills—the vote for one being 277 yeas to 54 nays, and for the other 325 yeas to 12 nays, and which votes demonstrated that their passage was a foregone conclusion and that they were not in the slightest danger after the passage of the rule for which I voted.

On the repeal of the Panama Tolls Exemption Act, I voted according to the specific plank in the Democratic platform, adopted at Baltimore, and stood with Speaker Clark, Majority Leader Underwood and all the other House Party leaders. In a speech delivered on the floor of the House March 31, 1914, I fully explained my position on this bill, and sent twenty thousand copies of the speech I then made to the voters of the district, who thereafter renominated me for Congress without opposition.

The lugging in of these charges at this late day in the campaign and at a time when I am compelled to be out of the district smacks more of republican tactics that it does of good democracy.

Furthermore, I do not believe that the intelligent and enlightened voters of the Eighth district want their representative to do nothing more than a rubber stamp. If so, the position ought to be auctioned off to the cheapest man in the district who will agree to take the job on such terms and conditions.

HEAT FLASHES, DIZZY, NERVOUS

Mrs. Wynn Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her During Change of Life.

Richmond, Va. — "After taking seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new woman. I always had a headache during the change of life and was also troubled with other bad feelings common at that time—dizzy spells, nervous feelings and heat flashes. Now I am in better health than I ever was and recommend your remedies to all my friends."—Mrs. LENA WYNN, 2812 E. O Street, Richmond, Va.

While Change of Life is a most critical period of a woman's existence, the annoying symptoms which accompany it may be controlled, and normal health restored by the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Such warning symptoms as a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, and dizziness.

For these abnormal conditions do not fail to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Heard About Town

News comes from Somerset that Joseph H. Rout, brother of Col. John W. Rout, of this city, has been quite ill for some time, but is improving now.

Jack J. Lawrence, third trick operator at Mt. Vernon, spent several days here with friends early in the week, from whom he received a cordial welcome.

L. D. Rousseau, of Phoenix, Arizona, has been visiting the Rankins and other relatives in this section for several days and Monday, went to McKinney to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McKechnie. Mr. Rousseau is a former Pulaski countian with many relatives here, who has done well in the west. He expects to be here probably a month, at least until after the Stanford fair.

Mr. A. G. Eastland, the well-known insurance man, arrived from Louisville this morning to work Stanford for a few days.

John H. Wren, engineer at the water works, had his head badly cut and his hand and other portions of his anatomy severely hurt while trying to put a belt on an engine the other evening.

Bright Hays had his right leg badly skinned up and bruised and other portions of his body bruised, when a buggy collided with one he was driving in near Rowland Sunday.

Sam J. Embry, Jr., and James Tribble, of this city, and Ora Barnett, of Hustonville, have gone to Akron, Ohio, where they have secured positions in the big plant of the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company, which makes a favorite brand of automobile tire as well as all sorts of rubber goods. These boys are all hustlers and will make good wherever they are placed.

While autoing Sunday Harry Jacobs, the monument man of this city, killed a rattlesnake, with seven buttons and a rattle. He attacked the serpent with a club and soon dispatched it. It was a monster in size, being as large as a man's arm around the middle of its body. Mr. Jacobs brought the reptile to town and exhibited it on the street court day, where, of course, it gave everyone who saw it the "creeps." Mr. Jacobs killed the snake near Butcher-town in the West End.

LATEST WAR NEWS.

In a brilliant attack the French have carried Hill 97, a height which dominates the Somme southeast of Dieppe, according to the official statement issued by the French War Office. After the sixth desperate attack, the Germans succeeded in entering Trones wood, according to the British official statement. This was at the expense of very heavy casualties, the statement adds, and the fighting in the wood continues.

The German defense along the Stokhod River has been unable to stay the progress of the Russians, who have crossed the river at various points. The latest communication from the Russian general headquarters shows that the two opposing armies are in the midst of a terrific struggle for possession of the river. The fighting between the Italians

Parents Should Know This Splendid Remedy

SIMPLE LAXATIVE COMPOUND HELPS TO CORRECT CONSTIPATION IN CHILDREN.

With all children there are times when the bowels fail to act naturally and it becomes necessary for the parents to administer a remedy. Cathartics and purgatives should never be used as these agents afford only temporary relief while their violent action shocks the system unduly. Mrs. Eva F. Gaff, 517 10th street, Washington, D. C., says that her little girl, Marie, had been subject to constipation, and that she found Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin the best remedy because of its mildness, and now always keeps a bottle of it in the house.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of simple laxative herbs, free from opiates or narcotic drugs of any kind, and is an ideal remedy for children because of its mild action and positive effect. Its use tends to strengthen the impaired bowel action and restore normal regularity.

MARIE GAFF

It is important that parents should know of a dependable remedy with no unpleasant after effects, griping or strain. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin costs only fifty cents a bottle and can be procured at any drug store. To obtain a trial bottle, free of charge, write to Dr. W. B. Among recent buyers of machines from Mr. Anderson were Henry Fields, Whitfield Miller, Andy Gooch, Ed Nolan, Lynn Gooch, J. M. Alexander, of Crab Orchard and J. H. Thompson, of Preachersville. Mr. Anderson has a good thing and as he advertises judiciously, is selling them almost by the wholesale.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address P. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. You well know the scarcity of merchandise in all lines, prices advancing on woollens, cloth, leather, scarcity of dye, etc. It has been the policy of the Graves-Cox store to begin each season with new merchandise, not to carry over goods from one season to another. This motto still holds good and the larger portion of the articles listed here cannot be purchased wholesale at the prices we are making to you. This country has never seen good merchandise advancing in price so rapidly, this sale is a sale of Quality Merchandise only.

GOOD CLOTHING AT REAL SAVINGS*Suits, Light-Weight Overcoats and Raincoats All Included

This season when good woollens are scarce and the cost high—Kelsington and Graco clothing values show better than ever in comparison. The same good clothing you have always purchased here. Buying during this sale is like coming in and picking out a suit at the beginning of the season and getting so much money handed back.

The styles are so desirable, the quality so good, and the assortment so satisfactory you'll have no trouble finding what you want. Styles for the young man; styles for the man of mature years. New checks, stripes, plaids or rich mixtures. Many quarter-lined with silk sleeve lining. Every wool suit in the house, finest blue flannels and serges included.

EX-LINCOLNITES DO WELL

Robert F. Scudder, of Glendale, Ariz. Back on Visit Here.

Robert Scudder, wife and son, Robert Scudder, Jr., are visiting relatives in this county, including his brother, R. S. Scudder, of McKinney.

He was here at court Monday and was given the glad hand by many of the old friends made while he lived in Lincoln. Mr. Scudder is now located near Glendale, Arizona, where he is doing nicely. Besides farming extensively, he runs a dairy, which is proving a money-making enterprise.

Mr. Scudder says that Kentuckians and especially ex-Lincolnites who are in Arizona are all doing well, and that business seems to be fine with all of them. He says that Henry Hutchison is making "a barrel of money" out of his creamery at Glendale and is one of the best known business men of that section.

Mr. Scudder is looking for a number of dairy cows to take back with him and also a pony or two for "the kids." He wants Holstein cows, however, which are rather scarce articles in this part of Kentucky, most of the dairymen and milk men in this section, preferring the Jerseys, which are not so popular in Arizona, Mr. Scudder says. He will be here about a week longer.

MARKET DRAGGY MONDAY.

The cattle market was somewhat drabby here Monday, quite a number being taken home unsold. Most of those which showed much quality sold, however. Very few foreign buyers were here, which was given as the reason for the slack market. Best stuff sold up to 8 cents a pound; heifers around 6 cents. Buyers were here for army horses and mules which sold up to $140 a head according to quality. W. B. Burton, of Lancaster bought three; J. W. Phillips, of Lebanon a couple and N. H. Peel, of Nicholasville four. A fairly good crowd was in town and farmers report crops doing fine after the recent showers, which give prospect of continuing.

SADDLERS, MULES AND COWS WANTED.

One walking stallion, three to five years old; one walking stallion, two years old; three walking mares or geldings, three to six years old, 15 1-4 to 15 3-4 hands high; three walking mules, four to seven years old, 14 to 15 hands high; five grade shorthorn cows, big milkers, three to five years old. All must be perfectly sound. Give full description and lowest cash price in first letter. J. F. Cook, phone 47. 52-3t.
